Brethren:

Traditionally, November 11, or Veteran's Day, has been a busy one for Overseas Lodge. This year was no exception. We started with breakfast at Mt. Vernon Lodge #4. They did their usual terrific job for all who attended. They are very gracious in providing breakfast for all who wished to attend the wreath laying.

At the Veterans Cemetery Overseas provided the color guard at the Masonic Memorial. Our Past Master, Dale Euga, gave a presentation on Special Forces. We toasted the many Veterans that could not be with us.

Lunch was served at the Pawtucket Masonic Lodge followed by our Annual meeting. It was a closed meeting this year. The new officers were elected, appointed, and installed. See the first page for a new list.

Two Past Grand Masters and members of Overseas Lodge, MW Raymond E. Hassell and MW Wyman P. Hallstrom Jr., were honored by Worshipful Brother Euga when he made them Honorary Past Masters. WM Euga also presented his officers with plaques of appreciation. Worshipful Brother Euga was presented with his Past Masters apron and a jewel that once belonged to W. Manny Lewis.

This year we will try a few different events. On December 10th we will share a Holiday Party with Jenks Lodge at the Masonic Temple. Lunch will be at 12:00 noon with Santa at 1:00 PM for children 18 years and younger who are present that day. ( We will need the names and ages of children ). This will be followed by a Yankee Swap for those 18 and older. ($25.00 limit on gifts) We will need the children's name and age and how many people will attend ASAP. At the December meeting we will be discussing the Lodge Organization.

For the February Meeting I am hoping that Andrew Hammer, author of the book, "Observing the Craft", will speak. I am trying to make those arrangements now. Also in February, I hope to have a Sweet Heart Get-away weekend at Cape Cod in conjunction with Jenks Lodge. We are gathering the particulars and will report when we have more information. We are planning on the weekend of February 16, 17, & 18 with the Monday being a holiday to rest.

I hope this will be a good year for Overseas Lodge. The officers and I will work to make it so. So as we strengthen our ties with Jenks Lodge, have interesting programs, and improve on our ritual, can we expect support from our Overseas Lodge Brothers?

See you at the lodge.

Fraternally,
Bryan Martin
Worshipful Master
