FROM THE SECRETARY:

Brothers; The business of the lodge, receiving communications and bills and paying those bills as well as making the deposits, is conducted between the Treasurer and myself. It is necessary that all bills, monies, and communications come to the secretary prior to the meeting. This way I can record them and transmit them to the treasurer for deposition. Holding a bill or a communication may result in waiting until the next meeting for you to get paid. The system works. Please work with it.

Greetings Brethren:

Spring is just around the corner and I just realized that we are already one-third of the way through our year. I have been very busy planning Overseas Lodge's Centennial celebration to ensure that it will be a very memorable and enjoyable event(s) for all. I am grateful for any Brother who still wishes to get involved.

Overseas Lodge will be providing the Color Guard for the Grand Master's Testimonial dinner on April 27th, as well as for the Grand Lodge Annual Communication on May 20. I personally thank W.: Dale Euga for his efforts and expertise as the Commandant of the Color Guard detail. It is a demanding position and requires quite a lot of coordination and logistics in addition to precision.

R.:W.: Robert A. Palazzo will be officially visiting Overseas on 9 April. W.: Paul Fetter will present an overview of "Freemasonry in RI during WW 1". It is a fitting topic since Overseas Lodge had it's birth during WW 1 and should be very informative. The following month we will be hosting the Killwinning Club of Boston at our May 14 communication and I invite you all to attend. Do not miss out!

W.: Brother Joe Bennett is still in the hospital on the mend and looks forward to receiving visitors. Please feel free to bring him some "real" food. I have been informed that the hospital food is far worse than what he was accustomed to in the Navy. He is currently in RI Hospital, Bridge Building, RM 627.

Enjoy the on again off again nice weather. Until the next time we meet....

Yours in the Craft,
Andy Gold
Worshipful Master
